MOTOR MUSTER 2024 CELEBRATES MOPAR MUSCLE

The Chrysler name first appeared on radiator badges in 1924, and the company introduced its Mopar brand of motor parts and accessories in the 1930s. By the 1970s, Mopar was synonymous with a long line of high-performance automobiles built by the Chrysler family of makes, from letter series cars and Fireflites to Chargers and 'Cudas. For 2024, Motor Muster celebrates Chrysler's centennial with a spotlight on Mopar Muscle, featuring performance cars from Chrysler, DeSoto, Dodge and Plymouth. It's a legacy of superb engineering, innovative design and matchless style.
